Post Office Box 11450
Columbia, South Carolina 29211

Dear Governor Riley:

Pursuant to statute, we respectfully submit herewith the Seventy-Fifth Annual Report of the South Carolina Department of Insurance covering the period of July 1, 1981, through June 30, 1982. As a part of this Report, the South Carolina Insurance Commission has included a number of Legislative Recommendations for changes in the Insurance Statutes of South Carolina. It is the Commission's judgment that the enactment of these Legislative Recommendations will enhance the ability of the Department of Insurance to better regulate the business of insurance in the interest of the consuming public of South Carolina. These proposals, along with the activities of the Department of Insurance and all of the licensed insurers in the State of South Carolina, are summarized on the following pages of this Report.

The Insurance Commission and the Department of Insurance stand ready to assist you and the Members of the General Assembly in the common pursuit of fulfilling our statutory responsibilities.

Respectfully submitted,

E. FORT WOLFE
Chairman
South Carolina Insurance Commission

ROGERS T. SMITH
Chief Insurance Commissioner

SOUTH CAROLINA INSURANCE COMMISSION
LEGISLATIVE RECOMMENDATIONS
1983 GENERAL ASSEMBLY

1. Enact a "Recoupment Bill" Which Would Assure That Losses Sustained Through the Reinsurance Facility Would Be Recouped Annually.

   It is recommended that a bill be enacted which would allow Automobile Insurance Companies to recoup annually their losses sustained through the operations of the Reinsurance Facility. Such a recommendation would include a provision that after a public hearing to be held annually, the Department would establish a specific dollar amount to be collected by all Automobile Insurers for each private passenger automobile insured by them, to offset the losses of the Reinsurance Facility for the previous twelve months. The dollar amount for such recoupment would be the same for each insured automobile no matter which company the vehicle is insured by and would be considered premium and subject to premium taxes, commissions and standard earning procedures.

   After the passage of the bill, future Private Passenger Automobile rate filings would be based solely on the experience of the individual company's voluntary book of business and would not include an increase in rates to "recoup" the company's past Reinsurance Facility losses as allowed today.

2. Enact an "Index File-And-Use" Rating Bill Based on an Economically Sound "Cost Indicator" for Private Passenger Automobile Insurance.

   In the interest of encouraging competition among insurers, the South Carolina Insurance Commission proposes to examine automobile rate filings under a new Index File-And-Use rating law. Under the current "Prior Approval" rating law, no automobile rate filing submitted to the South Carolina Insurance Department may become effective without the express approval. The Index File-And-Use rating law would permit those automobile rate filings, containing proper supporting data and which do not produce a total premium increase in excess of the published Insurance Department "Cost Indicator", to become effective thirty days after the date of filing. The Insurance Department Cost Indicator would be a composite measure of the various costs contained in providing automobile insurance coverage in South Carolina and would be derived from several economic indicators.

Other automobile rate filings whose premium increases exceeded the Cost Indicator, as well as filings containing supplementary rate information such as rate manuals, rate schedules and rating rules, would still require the express approval of the Department before they could become effective. In other words, the current Prior Approval rating law would still apply to these automobile rate filings.

3. Enact a Permanent Statutory Provision Directing the Department to Assess Automobile Insurers for the Cost of the State Rate and Statistical Division Acting in the Capacity as the Statistical Agent for Such Insurers.

Act 1177 of 1974 directs that the State Rate and Statistical Division shall act as the statistical agent for insurers engaged in the Automobile Insurance business in South Carolina. Prior to 1981, it was contended that the Department did not have the express statutory authority to assess insurers for the cost of this division; however, the General Assembly did expressly enact such specific authority in the Temporary Provisions of both the 1981 Appropriations Act and the 1982 Appropriations Act. The Circuit Court recently held that the delegation of such authority by the General Assembly to the Chief Insurance Commissioner to assess insurers for these expenses was a constitutional delegation of the General Assembly's taxing authority in that the Department was merely called upon to perform the administrative function of collecting the assessment. We now recommend that a bill be enacted to permanently require the Department to continue to perform this administrative function, i.e., collecting the assessment on behalf of the State.

4. The Statutes Pertaining to Cancellation or Refusal to Renew Policies of Automobile Insurance Should be Consolidated and Made Uniform.

The subject of cancellation or nonrenewal of an automobile insurance policy is dealt with in no less than four different places in the Code, and the provisions relating to cancellation or nonrenewal are confusing and, in some cases, clearly contradictory. For example, South Carolina Code § 38-37-1440 clearly limits the reasons for cancellation to nonpayment of premium and loss of driver's license, while South Carolina Code § 38-37-1310 seems to permit cancellation for a wide variety of reasons. Another example is that Code § 38-37-1450 requires fifteen days' notice of cancellation for a liability policy, while Code § 56-11-730 would seem to require thirty days' notice of cancellation for a physical damage policy, even though Act 1177 requires the availability of packaged liability-physical damage policies. Because of these and other examples, the Department feels that the provisions of the Code pertaining to automobile insurance cancellation or nonrenewal should be consolidated and made uniform, with unnecessary or contradictory provisions being repealed.

5. The Chief Insurance Commissioner Should be Authorized to Hold Public Hearings on any Matter Which He Deems to be in the Public Interest or Necessary to the Administration or Enforcement of the Insurance Laws of South Carolina.

Throughout the Insurance Code there are specific statutes authorizing the Chief Insurance Commissioner to hold hearings with respect to particular matters. There is not, however, any statute which generally authorizes the Chief Insurance Commissioner to convene public hearings on matters which he deems to be in the public interest or in matters in which a public hearing would assist in the administration or enforcement of the insurance law. The Department believes that such general authority would be beneficial, since the rapidly changing nature of the insurance business often fosters the introduction of new products or practices within the industry which were not even contemplated at the time the Insurance Code was enacted. The authority to bring to public light insurance matters affecting the public and the industry alike, as well as matters not strictly involving insurance but directly affecting insurance, would, in the opinion of the Department, assist the Commissioner in the discharge of his duties. Consequently, it is recommended that general authority to hold any hearings and issue any orders on matters which the Commissioner deems to be in the public interest or necessary to the administration of the insurance laws be adopted.

6. Amend Section 38-43-1020 to Allow Deviations to be Continuous Until Disapproved.

Companies which are members or subscribers of a licensed Rating Bureau and wish to use rates which are a uniform deviation from the Bureau's rates, must file annual requests for these deviations with the Department. This is in accordance with current statutory requirements.

Since the vast majority of these deviations are downward from the Bureau's rates, and hence are to the public's benefit, and furthermore are thoroughly analyzed by the Department when initially submitted, subsequent annual reviews create an inefficiency and are unnecessary especially when nonrenewal of the deviation would result in a higher rate level. It is recommended that the current statute be reworded to permit "continuous until disapproved" deviations, similar to statutory language currently permitted in many other jurisdictions for those filings requesting a downward deviation.

7. To Provide for the Regulation of Credit Property Rates Under the Consumer Protection Code in the Same Manner as Credit Property Rates Under the Consumer Finance Code.

Prior to the passage of the Consumer Protection Code, all Credit Property rates were regulated under the Consumer Finance Act. The Consumer Protection Code created a new type of lender's license, that is, any lender issued a loan for more than $7500 would be a "supervised" lender. The Consumer Protection Code did not provide for the regulation of insurance rates for "supervised" lenders even though most of their loans would be for amounts less than $7500.

In essence, the exposure to the insurance company is the same, regardless of the license of the lender. However, the rates are not the same, mostly due to the regulation provided for the restricted category. We hope to remedy this anomaly by this proposal, which would include Property Insurance in the definition of Consumer Credit Insurance and would provide for a minimum loss ratio of approximately 50 percent in order that Credit Property rates written under the Consumer Protection Code be regulated in the same manner as Credit Property rates written under the Consumer Finance Code.

8. Amend Section 38-51-110 to Eliminate the Examination Requirement for Credit Life, Credit Accident and Health, and Credit Property Agents.

Annually, hundreds of persons take written examinations to become licensed by the Department of Insurance to sell the limited lines of credit life, credit accident and health and credit property insurance. Persons selling these types of insurance have no opportunity to exercise underwriting expertise or otherwise demonstrate the knowledge and abilities normally considered to be necessary for insurance agents. These persons, in effect, only "take orders" for a limited form of insurance and only fill in the necessary blanks on the application. Our neighboring states of North Carolina and Florida license credit insurance agents without examination; Georgia requires only an "open book" examination. The Department feels that for these limited lines of insurance, applicants should be licensed without the requirement of a written examination.

9. Section 38-5-370 be Amended to Authorize the Preparer of the Fee and Tax Return to sign in lieu of a "Chief Executive Officer."

The Department is generating an enormous amount of correspondence to companies in order to have the executive officer sign Fee and Tax Returns. Often the actual preparer of such returns is not the executive officer, and when our Analysts have a question about the return, a telephone call is placed to the executive officer who is, in turn, usually unfamiliar with the details of the return. The call is then referred to the preparer causing unwarranted delay and confusion. It is recommended that this unnecessary statutory requirement, that the Chief Executive Officer sign the Fee and Tax Returns, be amended to allow the responsible and appropriate employee of the company to do so.

10. Amend Section 38-35-946, the Mandatory Continuation and Conversion Privilege for Group Medical Expense Insurance, so as to Require the Excess Claims on the Converted Class of Policies to be Charged Back to the Groups.

The current law provides that the premium for the conversion class of policies shall be based on the experience of those policies. Since persons who are currently incurring medical expenses or who are very likely to incur them in the near future are the ones most likely to convert their policies, the adverse selection makes the rate determined according to the statute extremely high. The premium for such policies is currently as much as five or six times the premium paid with respect to the individual while insured by the group. This, in turn, causes another order of adverse selection with the result that it is impossible to calculate a premium based on such experience. The original Act was 1978 Act No. 547 and it allowed a person to continue to be insured on the group for up to six months upon payment of the entire premium. This seemed to work well in practice with respect to the consumer because it allowed continuation of coverage for pregnancies conceived while insured and for catastrophe medical expenses that were in the process of being incurred at time of termination. Any expenses incurred during this six months were automatically charged back to the group with the result that the claims experience of the converted class was much more stable. 1979 Act No. 149 changed the length of time that a person could be continued on the group to one policy month plus a fraction with the result that expenses due to pregnancies conceived while insured on the group were covered by the converted policy as were the other expenses in process of being covered at time of termination from the group. The law should be changed so that standard premiums would be charged the converted class of policyholders plus a reasonable additional expense allowance.

11. Amend Section 38-31-100 so as to Set a Definite Limit on the Amount of Dependent Life Insurance that Can be Afforded by a Group.

Act No. 731 and Act No. 732 of the 1976 Acts of the General Assembly were passed simultaneously and both amended the above section. One amendment substituted $2,500 as a limit for dependent life insurance to replace a table where the amount could not exceed $1,000. The other Act left out the table altogether but did not include the limit allowed by the first Act. A subsequent opinion of the Attorney General stated that it was clearly the intent of the Legislature to allow a maximum of $2,500, but some companies have contended that the law as codified does not place a limit on the amount of such insurance. The defect should be remedied and a new limit of $10,000 enacted.

12. Conversion Privileges for Dependents.

The Group Accident and Health Conversion laws require that any person covered under a group hospital, surgical or major medical insurance certificate, either a spouse or a dependent child, who ceases to meet the definition of an eligible dependent has the right to have an individual policy issued to him without evidence of insurability, if timely application is made. Also, the laws applicable to similar individual accident and health insurance grant this same privilege to a former spouse whose coverage would otherwise cease because of a break in the marital relationship. The individual laws also grant the insured the right to continuing coverage for handicapped and dependent children of policyholder if the dependent continues to be dependent on the insured after attaining the limiting age when coverage would otherwise cease. No such protection exists for a child who reaches the maximum age permitted in the individual policy for definition of dependent child but who is not then disabled. It is, therefore, suggested that Article III of Chapter 35 be amended to require that an individual policy of accident and health insurance be offered to a dependent upon reaching the limiting age without evidence of insurability if the application is made within thirty days of the date when the child attains that age.

13. Enact a Statute Which Would Clearly Define Which Insurance Carrier Covers an Employee When One Group Insurance Policy Replaces Another.

With today's economic climate, it appears that many businesses, both large and small, are "shopping around" for group policies for their employees, and in many cases, switching to those companies, "trusts" or plans that offer what seems to be the best coverage for the lowest price. Many times, in the shift from one insurance company to another, persons suffering illnesses, pregnancies or disability are left "out in the cold" when their coverage is denied by both the old insurer and the new insurer. An example is an employee who is on disability when the "old" group is terminated and the "new" group issued. If the new group provides that coverage begins on the effective date of the policy or the date that the disabled employee actually returns to work, and if the old group does not have "continuation of benefits" for the disabled employees, the employee would not be covered by either group policy. In addition, there are a number of other technical problems inherent in one group replacing another that sometimes work toward the detriment of the employees. These problems are addressed in detail in a National Association of Insurance Commissioners Model Bill and Regulation and it is suggested that the "Model Bill" be enacted, with the "Model Regulation" to follow at a later date.

14. Enact the NAIC Model Bill Which Would Give the Insurance Department Jurisdiction Over a Multiple Employer Trust Unless Such Trust Could Prove That it was Entitled to an ERISA Exemption.

Many Multiple Employer Trusts are not regulated at the present time by either the Federal Government or State Government with respect to accountability and solvency. As a result, many such Trusts have become insolvent and left members with large unpaid medical bills. Many such Trusts are underwritten by legitimate insurance companies and have done the job for which they were intended, but others are administered by skilled promoters who seek to profit from fees they charge for administration. It sometimes takes the United States Labor Department years to rule on the eligibilty of some of these Trusts but when a State Insurance Department tries to assume jurisdiction, a suit in Federal Court is usually brought to enjoin them from taking such jurisdiction. The proposed legislation would give the State Insurance Department regulatory powers over such Trusts unless the Trust could prove that it does have an ERISA exemption.

15. Amend the Consumer Protection Code and the Consumer Law so as to Increase the Benefit to Premium Ratio for Credit Life Insurance.

South Carolina is one of four states, including Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana, that allows by statute the highest rate in the nation for this type of insurance — a rate of $1.00 per year per $100 of original decreasing loan balance. This premium has consistently generated a benefit-to-premium ratio of only 18 to 26 percent. The same insurance is sold in other states for as low as 40 cents per $100 of insurance per year with 35 states allowing a charge of only 60 to 75 cents. It is recommended that these laws be amended so as to make Credit Life insurance subject to a given percent benchmark loss ratio, perhaps the same as Credit Accident and Health and Property insurance, or at least mandate a premium at a fixed amount which would allow this insurance to be purchased by our citizens at a rate that is more in line with the rate paid by citizens of most other states.

16. General Revision of Title 37 of the 1962 Code of Laws of the State of South Carolina, as amended (Insurance Code).

Nearly thirty years have elapsed since the last revision of our insurance statutes as a whole. In 1947, that massive effort was prompted by the Supreme Court decision which eroded State regulation of insurance and resulted in Public Law 15, the McCarran Act, which restored to the States the continuing power to regulate insurance in the absence of Congressional action. While there have been many substantive changes in our law since 1947, we believe that current conditions dictate re-examination of the entire body of insurance laws and regulations in the development of a new insurance code. We suggest that this conclusion is supported in the following areas:

a. There are many gaps in the law where no regulatory authority or responsibility exists. This is not to suggest that the Department build a new empire. On the contrary, the various segments of the industry should welcome a well-defined set of statutes, rules and regulations for operations. Typical examples of areas in which a vacuum exists are: (1) authorization and operation of motor clubs; (2) little, if any, law or other rule exists with respect to title insurance companies; (3) there are many areas of corporate finance of insurance companies, both stock and mutual companies which need to be clearly set forth.

b. There are many areas which are out-of-date and not responsive to modern economic conditions. Typical examples of major areas which need updated are as follows: (1) the qualifications and specific licensing requirements for agents, brokers and adjusters;

(2) the entire chapter on domestic mutual insurance companies was developed around the turn of the century and few changes have been made in the last seventy-five years; (3) capital and surplus requirements for operation of insurance entities, whether they be companies, premium service companies, health maintenance organizations, insurance agencies or any form of corporate entity, engaging directly or indirectly in the insurance business; (4) the Trade Practices Act has not received any diligent attention since its enactment. (There is a possibility that more definitive sections with respect to fraud might be included in the Trade Practices Act); (5) the so-called "all industry law" with respect to property and casualty rate filings needs to be reviewed. The non-essential matters need to be struck, and again, the whole subject of ratemaking needs to be reviewed in the light of the 1976 statutory changes and the economic conditions that currently exist and are projected for the last quarter of the 20th century.

c. There is a definite need for elimination or de-emphasis of non-productive regulatory programs. A few illustrations will suffice. (1) The present chapter on mutual benevolent aid associations is of doubtful value to the public at large. (2) There are a number of insurance company charters which are dormant. The expense of the taxpayers is the same as if it were an active going concern. We think that a "sunset law" ought to be applicable to insurance company operations. (3) The Legislature provided in 1956 a requirement for a continuing study of the impact of nuclear energy on various activities of public concern, including insurance. It is doubtful that the South Carolina Insurance Department can make a significant contribution to solutions of the problem surrounding a nuclear holocaust, a nuclear accident or nuclear waste storage (please note what happened to Proposition 15 in the State of California). (4) Thousands of policy forms are submitted to the Department for prior approval before use by various insurance carriers. There are certain policy forms which are either standard or repetitive and we suggest that these policy forms could be filed and used without prior approval. The Insurance Department would not give up the right of subsequent review with authority to require that the form be withdrawn. This system is simply rather archaic. (5) A final illustration is the statutory requirement that the State of South Carolina furnish a copy of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners' standard uniform Convention Blank to all companies at no expense to the company. We think this is inappropriate for the State to furnish out-of-state companies copies of the Convention Blank when it is a universal practice for such companies to print hundreds of these statements through commercial facilities. We would suggest that domestic companies be furnished at no expense sufficient copies to make filings of their statements for all regulatory requirements, including the Insurance Department, Tax Commission, Employment Security Commission, Internal Revenue Service and the like. This is by no means an all-inclusive list of programs which might be eliminated at the interest of efficiency and a better utilization of assets and resources of the money, time and personnel available to the Insurance Department.

The proposed project involves extensive preparation and study, numerous conferences, some cost and a considerable expenditure of time on the part of the Insurance Department staff, the insurance industry and the General Assembly.
